Welcome to everybody for this afternoon's game.

Right! Where do I start? Pre-season as we know started back on 1st July. Fitness, disciplines, shape, belief – that is what this period is all about, but we are entering the last two weeks and all the hard work has now got to come together. Fitness, sharpness, both mentally and physically, must now be very close to 100%.

Myself and Darron have been delighted with the way things have gone. We have taken a lot of positives from the previous games and things that needed to be sorted out have been worked on and put right on the training field.

With the opening game at Ebbsfleet getting forever closer I have now got to start making major decisions, obviously I am talking about the starting 11 and, as each week passes by, that becomes clearer in my mind.

I hope these two games against Hartlepool and Bolton show you, the supporters, how far the players have come over the last few weeks and encourages you all to believe we can go on to have a successful season.

Enjoy the game. The Gaffer

Guests for the Bolton game on 6th August will be York City Ladies FC. They will be parading the North Riding County FA Cup which the Minster Ladies won by beating Teeside Athletic 1-0. After fine work by Jenna Strain and Kayleigh Davis the winning goal was scored by Sam Read. York City Ladies have retained the trophy after their previous success in 2009/2010 Captain and veteran defender Abbi Webster said "It has been fantastic to win the trophy for two consecutive years. We have a great team spirit and really work hard together. Next season we have set our sights on winning promotion and getting greater recognition for womens football". York City Ladies play in the North East Womens and North Riding FA Leagues. For more information please get in touch with secretary Gordon Staniforth on 07946532385 or email gstaniforth@yorkcollege.ac.uk The above picture of the recent Presentation Evening held at Pike Hills Golf Club.

Good afternoon and welcome to Bootham Crescent for our pre-season friendly match with our opponents today:

Saturday 30th July v Hartlepool United

Saturday 6th August v Bolton Wanderers.

3 / From the Boardroom

Welcome to the directors, management, staff, players and fans of the respective teams and we all hope you have had a safe journey to York today and likewise for your return home later this evening.

Thank you to both teams for agreeing to play us and we wish you every success for the forthcoming season which starts for Hartlepool on Saturday 6th August away at MK Dons whilst we are here again playing our final pre-season game against Bolton Wanderers who start their season on 13th August away at QPR when we kick-off our season at Ebbsfleet United.

We have, of course, seen some excellent football over the past few weeks and none better than the performance against Sunderland and I hope that today's game is equally as good.

May I take this opportunity of thanking the Vice Presidents for sponsoring the recent tour and training camp at Oakham School. I know how appreciative Gary and his team are for this great team building opportunity.

Well it certainly hasn't been a quiet period between seasons neither on nor off the pitch. You are all familiar, I am sure, with the successful comings and goings on the team side of things, and I hope you had an opportunity to attend one of the three public consultations on the eagerly anticipated initial planning application for the proposed Monks Cross Community Stadium and supporting retail development. It is anticipated that this will be submitted before the end of July but at the time of writing these notes the same has not yet been received by the local authority, although I am assured that it is on its way and will be with them as soon as it possibly can be.

Many people attended at both Monks Cross and the York Hilton Hotel and the developers have told me that they received a great deal of positive feedback from fans, local residents and the business community, although we must always be aware that there will inevitably be some objections as there always is with any large scale development proposal. These consultations mark an important stage in the whole process and those of you that did visit the displays will appreciate that a lot of work has been undertaken in the past few months when on the face of it progress has perhaps seemed to be a little slow at times and for those not involved perhaps a bit frustrating.

Believe me there are many very complicated and detailed reports that are needed to accompany a planning application of this magnitude from the ecological details of the site to the anticipated traffic impact assessments, landscape proposals, access statements and sustainability requirements both in terms of financial viability and renewable energies proposed along with building materials etc. All of these must be completed before an application can be registered let alone sent out for statutory consultation to all the necessary departments of the authority, utility providers and the various other statutory agencies involved.

Nevertheless this major step has now been passed and the proposals are there for all to see and comment upon. If you did not get time or were unable to visit the locations for these consultations, then you can visit the web site www.yorkcommunitystadium.com and also make comments.

Pre-season there are also many other organisational requirements on any stadium and its generally a little more complicated on an old 1932 stadium as it is on a new one so hopefully life in future years will be a little simpler at this time of year. Safety certification is obviously an important requirement for all stadiums as are all the individual certificates required to ensure that everything from fire extinguishers to crush barriers are all in suitable, satisfactory condition and full working order and I would like to thank all those involved both in house staff and external professionals who help us in this task. There is also the preparation of the pitch and congratulations to the ground staff as it looked in great condition when I was down at the ground earlier in the week.

These two last home pre-season matches give us the perfect run in to the start of the new season which I am sure is eagerly anticipated by us all, the directors, Gary, his team, all the club staff and many others involved with the club not least all you the supporters who we hope will turn out in greater numbers to support our team throughout the coming season.

Good luck to the team today and enjoy the match.

Ian McAndrew

Welcome to Bootham Crescent as City's Pre-Season campaign continues with a couple of interesting home games. We have had a run of games on the road which always limits the number of City supporters who can see the new-look team, so it's good to be home so more people have the opportunity to see how things are shaping up ahead of the big kick off on August 13th.

4 / Minstermen Media Centre

This season the Media Centre has been asked to take over responsibility for two important areas of the club's media output – the Official Website and the Matchday Programme – in addition to the existing internet TV service and DVD productions.

The task ahead for the Official Website is to make sure it is updated more regularly and, also, more quickly. After a brief straw poll among a small number of York City supporting internet users, it is clear that most fans (approximately 75%) are already pretty satisfied with the club website. However, it would be good to make that number nearer 100%. Over the past few weeks some changes have been made to the news content of the website which I hope those of you who use the site have noticed and have liked. It will be a big challenge to keep the regular content coming but I am aim to make the news pages more interesting throughout the season. I will do my best!

To edit the Matchday Programme is a massive challenge. We are very fortunate to have Mark Comer at The Max to design the programme as he is full of ideas and is a City supporter so knows what attracts fans to the pages. The other evening a meeting was held with a number of the programme's contributors. Together we thrashed out some ideas about new designs and new ideas for the forthcoming season – all will be revealed at the Barrow game on 16th August! Thanks very much to them for coming along and sharing their thoughts with us, this collective input is of vital importance. The new-look programme will have a new name and some slightly different content, although it would be wrong to change some of the great stuff that is already inside. Without Dave Batters' lovingly-compiled pages to remind us of our glorious history, for example, it wouldn't be a true York City programme!

I understand that, if you expect people to part with their hard-earned money, you have to give them a product commensurate to the price. And that is also true with the YCTV subscription scheme, and I genuinely hope you feel this is good value for money at £30 for the whole season. Subscriptions are now available and have been steadily coming in. For details of how to subscribe please check the Official Website. A new feature for this season is that you can now purchase your subscription over the internet via our partners Outs Photography. Thanks to Tommy Outing for setting up a facility which should make life easier for those of you who can't just pop down to the Crescent on a whim.

While all these new roles will be hard work it will be well worth it as I am convinced this is going to be an exciting season under Gary Mills. Talking about a winning side is piece of cake!

Enjoy the game.

York City 2 Bolton Wanderers 0 2 January 1971 FA Cup Round 3

City and Bolton have met four times in the FA Cup with the Trotters winning on three occasions. City's success was 40 years ago when then in Division Four they beat Second Division (Championship) Wanderers thanks to two first half goals netted by Ian Davidson (pictured).

Bolton, then managed by Nat Lofthouse, made a bright start and went close to scoring when in the 10th minute John Byrom's left footed shot was well saved by Ron Hillyard. Play swung from end to end with Paul Aimson having an effort scrambled clear and then Gareth Williams headed wide for the visitors. City took the lead in the 32nd minute when left winger Alan Phillips saw his pass back to 'keeper Alan Boswell intercepted by Davidson who ran on to slip the ball into the net. Four minutes before the interval Boswell failed to cut out Dick Hewitt's cross from the left and the midfielder, who had only scored three times in 71 previous games for the club, was again on the spot to head home.

In the second half Bolton strove hard to get back into the game but City's defence held firm with skipper Barry Swallow and 19 year old Chris Topping outstanding in the centre of defence.

The teams lined up as follows:

CITY : Hillyard, Mackin, Burrows, Davidson, Swallow, Topping, Henderson, McMahon, Aimson, Hewitt, Johanneson.

WANDERERS : Boswell, Ritson, McAllister, Williams, Hulme, Rimmer, Jones (Seddon), Byrom, Fletcher, Greaves, Phillips.

Attendance: 10,882

EBBSFLEET UNITED (DA11 9GN)

Approximate mileage: 220

The eagerly awaited start to the new season is almost over, and on the 13th August all roads and rail tracks will lead to Ebbsfleet, well Northfleet to be precise! A large turnout of 'City fans is expected to descend on Stonebridge Road for the opening day encounter against Liam Daish's team, who celebrated immediate promotion back to the BSBP at the end of last season having suffered the disappointment of relegation the previous year.

Part-timers Ebbsfleet United, who are owned by the web-based venture MyFootballClub, and include former 'City keeper Ron Hillyard on their coaching staff, have retained many of last season's squad, including England C keeper, Preston Edwards, captain Paul Lorraine, and top scorer Calum Willock. New signings include the former Histon keeper Joe Welch, who, together with experienced ex Crawley defender Ian Simpemba, will hope to add strength to the back line, whilst striker, Liam Enver-Marum has been added to help increase the goal tally.

As in previous years, visiting supporters are expected to be allocated the uncovered terrace behind one of the goals. Some covered seating is also available in the Main Stand.

8 / Captain's column

Welcome to Bootham Crescent to today's game.

In the last couple of weeks we have got to know each other a lot better off the field, having a cricket game at Clifton Alliance which was for a very good cause – York City Youth Development – and it also turned out to be a good laugh. The majority of the squad have never picked up a bat! I didn't even know what hand to use so used my left hand which then turned out to be a bad choice as I only got one run. Jason Walker – aka "Sherman Jason" – found out that his leg pads came up to his chest! Jamal was in starting 11 until he picked up the ball and got subbed with Andre Boucaud who turned out to be best cricket player on the day.

The two players that claimed they played cricket were Danny Parslow and Jamie Reed. Danny was our skipper on the day and he only ended up getting one run and got smashed in his two overs for 25 runs. The Gaffer needs to know that there are only 6 balls in one over and it can only bounce once! The barbecue must have made plenty of money from TY and Reedy with all the burgers and sausages they eat. Thank you to CACC for hosting the event. Fundraising is vital for Youth Development at this level.

We also had a few nights away where we had two games resulting in a win and a draw. We know we can do better but this was more of a bonding and getting to know each other week. Matty Blair was caught trying to introduce a drink to the management to get on their good side. I tried to warn him that they wouldn't have it but he wouldn't listen to me!

We also learned that we have some bad time keepers in our clan – Reedy and Sherman (JW) who can't seem to tell the time correctly.

We managed to get a game of golf – eight of us playing 18 holes and the rest played a little par 3 course. This created mayhem. Between them they lost 50 balls! Worst player of all was Jamal, with Rob Batty coming close! Over the 18 holes Ashley Chambers played well but he will know he was not honest about his handicap. All in all it was a good trip – tough training and everyone got to know each other better.

All the lads would like to thank the Chairman and Board of Directors for allowing and paying for the Pre-Season tour. We would also like to thank Richard Adams and his fellow Vice-Presidents for their kind contribution of £3,000 towards the trip.

We have three games this week – which will be our toughest games and we want to win these – hopefully taking this into the season on a high.

Following an approach from Gary Mills the Vice Presidents provided a cheque for £3,000 towards the clubs pre-season tour.

Richard Adams, Chairman of the Vice Presidents stated that his members were delighted to support the management team in the team bonding session and build-up to the season ahead.

The Vice Presidents thank Jason McGill, his board of directors for their sterling work during the close season and take the opportunity to wish Gary, Darron and his newly assembled squad all the very best for the season and hopefully come April 28th we will be celebrating promotion.

They go to Bishopthorpe School and train with Bishopthorpe White Rose FC. They support Sunderland and York City and their favourite players are Michael Ingham and Jamie Reed. Joseph and Luke were at the Sunderland pre-season game and absolutely loved it.

JACK RAWNSLEY / BOLTON

Jack supports York City and Bolton Wanderers. He's been watching matches at Bootham Crescent and the Reebok since he was very small. His favourite City player is Michael Ingham and for Bolton it's Kevin Davies. He has been to Wembley for each of the last three seasons, but has unfortunately seen York and Bolton lose each time! He is 7 years old and along with his brother and sister (Josh and Jessica) attends St. James primary school in Daisy Hill (near Bolton). He loves football and is a tough tackling goal scoring forward for Athertown Town Juniors who win lots of matches. Today he is hoping that York win 3-2.

York City 2 Hartlepool Utd 0 28 April 1984

Keith Walwyn (9) opens the scoring against Pool. The beaten goalkeeper is Eddie Blackburn, formerly with City.

This was a red-letter day for City. With this victory over Hartlepool they clinched the Fourth Division Championship and thus collected the first major honour in the club's history.

Promotion to the Third Division had long since been assured in that memorable 1983/84 campaign and the title race had become a one-horse affair as City went into this match at Bootham Crescent on a glorious spring afternoon.

They required three points to lift the title and the opposition was Hartlepool United, who were second from bottom of the table and almost certain to have to apply for re-election.

In the visitors' line-up were former City goalkeeper, Eddie Blackburn, and at centre half was John Bird, who four and a half years later was to become manager at Bootham Crescent.

In front of a big crowd and with the atmosphere tense with excitement, City gave a nervous display in the first half. In the fifth minute United should have scored when Dobson broke down the middle and his pass put Lowe clear, but from a good position the visitors' striker shot inches wide.

After a very slow start, City began to improve and were unlucky not to take the lead when John MacPhail headed a Brian Pollard corner against the underside of the crossbar. 'Pool hit back, however, and Taylor glanced a header just past the post.

MacPhail once had to clear over his own bar as further pressure was put on the home defence but, as the interval approached, City showed signs of getting on top. Within a minute of the resumption the crowd went wild with delight when Keith Walwyn smashed the ball into the roof of the net after fine work by John Byrne down the right.

City piled on the pressure and in the 56th minute, Walwyn increased the lead with a close-range header after MacPhail had put an overhead kick into the goalmouth. City were inches away from a third goal when Blackburn turned a Byrne shot on to the crossbar and then Sean Haslegrave cracked a fierce shot just wide.

When the final whistle sounded, many of the crowd invaded the pitch and mobbed the players. Later they chanted for the team and Denis Smith and Viv Busby appeared in the directors' box to acknowledge the cheers. The champagne corks popped and there were memorable scenes as everyone celebrated and savoured the historic occasion.

Another club record was created that day as York completed their 29th League victory of the season, beating the 28 in the promotion season of 1964-65.

CITY : Jones, Evans, Hay, Sbragia, MacPhail, Hood, Ford, Haslegrave, Walwyn, Byrne, Pollard (Houchen).

UNITED : Blackburn, Smithies, Barker, Hogan, Linighan, Bird, Brown, Lowe, Linacre, Dobson, Taylor (Borthwick).

Attendance: 6,063

HARTLEPOOL UNITED LOOKBACK by David Batters

City and United are old Football League rivals and between 1929-2003 met 94 times in the competition.

Record of past games (City's details first)

At	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
York	47	26	13	8	91	41	70
Hartlepool	47	11	10	26	60	91	37
Total	94	37	23	34	151	132	107

City's biggest home win in the series was 5-0 in 1953/54 when Campbell Burgess (2), Les Porter, Gordon Brown and Dave Dunmore scored in front of 3,645 in a Division 3 North fixture. Other notable victories were 5-1 in 1982/83 and 4-0 in 1947/48, 1948/49, 1960/61 and 1970/71.

United's biggest win here was 4-1 in 1946/47 and their last success here was in 1988/89 when they triumphed 3-2.

Player and managerial connections

Players who have represented both clubs over the years include goalkeeper Eddie Blackburn along with John MacPhail, Keith Houchen, Jon McCarthy, Tony Barratt, Paul Baker, Kevin Dixon, Paul Stephenson, Mark Tinkler and Lee Bullock.

John Bird assisted by Alan Little were in charge at the Victoria Ground before their move to Bootham Crescent in 1988. Other former City players to have held the managerial seat at Hartlepool were John Simpson, Viv Busby, John MacPhail and Keith Houchen (right).

1 • Scott FLINDERS

The 6'4" goalkeeper moved to Pools during the summer of 2009 following his release from Crystal Palace and enjoyed an excellent first season at The Vic. Flinders started his career with Barnsley and made his league debut for the Tykes in March 2005 against Peterborough. Later that year the agile shot stopper was capped by England U20s and soon attracted the attention of Eagles boss Peter Taylor who took him to Selhurst Park in July 2006.

2 • Neil AUSTIN

The determined full-back was snapped up from local rivals Darlington during the summer of 2009 and became the first Quakers player to make a switch to The Vic since Neil Aspin in 2001. He came through the ranks with hometown club Barnsley and made his debut in 2002, going on to make over 150 appearances for the Tykes and playing a big role in their promotion to the Championship in 2006. Austin then moved on to Darlington in the summer of 2007.

3 • Ritchie HUMPHREYS

When Ritchie Humphreys made his debut for Pools in a 1-1 draw with Mansfield Town in August 2001 there could have been few who would have predicted the impact he would have on the Club. Brought to The Vic after a brief spell with Cambridge United, Humphreys had made his name young when he burst on to the scene with some spectacular goals for hometown club Sheffield Wednesday. Having been signed by Turner as a striker. In 2010/11, he went on to celebrate his Testimonial season with the Club, celebrating with a number of high-profile events culminating with a match against a strong Sunderland side at The Vic. Humphreys was given even more reason to smile in February 2011 when he came off the bench at Exeter to become the Club's all-time record appearance-maker with 473 games to his name. Now with a foot firmly in the coaching side of things at Pools, Humphreys will also be able to slot in to various positions when called upon throughout the 2011/12 season.

4 • Gary LIDDLE

The versatile and talented schemer joined Pools from Middlesbrough just after the start of the 2006/07 season and made his debut in a Carling Cup tie at Burnley. He was a revelation during his first few months with the Club and played a huge role in promotion from League Two with some classy displays in the centre of midfield which earned him joint Player of the Year. In 2010/11, Mick Wadsworth moved Liddle back to his preferred position in the heart of midfield where he prospered and helped Pools to cement their place in the division.

5 • Sam COLLINS

The powerful defender arrived from Hull City on deadline day of the transfer window in January 2008 and immediately displayed his strength in the heart of Pools defence. An uncompromising centre-back, Collins came through the ranks at Huddersfield Town before moving on to Bury and then Port Vale where he made more than 150 appearances. A move to Hull City marked the next stage in Collins' career but a knee injury hampered his progress at the KC Stadium and he was allowed to move on to The Vic.

Humphreys

6 • Evan HORWOOD

The energetic left-back joined Pools in the summer of 2010 following a successful trial spell with the Club. Having been released by Carlisle, the Hartlepool-born defender received interest from several teams in various divisions but as soon as Chris Turner made his move, the 24-year-old set his heart on a move to Victoria Park. In 2007 he left to spend a year north of the border with Gretna before returning to England with Carlisle the following summer. Had a spell on loan with City in 2005/06.

7 • James BROWN

One of the most talented players to have represented the Club, Brown has always been tipped for a big future in the game. Injury has so far hampered his progress and he's suffered the misfortune of two cruciate ligament ruptures in his young career, the first in the pre season of 2005 and the latest in November 2008. He battled back from the first setback to make his First Team debut in April 2006 and then played a key role on the right side of midfield in the 2006/07 promotion season, scoring seven goals and being named Supporters' Young Player of the Year. Signed from Cramlington in 2004, Brown pledged his future to the Club by signing a new contract in 2009 despite rumours circulating about interest from the Championship.

8 • James POOLE

Talented youngster James Poole made a permanent move to Victoria Park in the summer of 2011 after enjoying a promising loan spell at the Club during the previous campaign. Poole spent three months at The Vic during 2010/11 on loan from Manchester City.

9 • Colin NISH

The 6'3" forward signed for Pools at the end of June 2011 after Mick Wadsworth highlighted the Scot as the kind of striker he was looking for to complete his summer transfer business. While he is strong in the air, Nish prefers the ball to feet which allows him to show off his good technical ability. With a good goals to game ratio throughout his career in Scotland, Nish will be confident of transferring his strike rate in to League One in his first try of English football in 2011/12. A former Kilmarnock and Dunfermline player, his latest club north of the border was Hibernian.

10 • Adam BOYD

The sensational news of Adam Boyd's return to Pools was announced on the last day of the 2008/09 season after the Club agreed a deal to bring him in from Leyton Orient. A product of the Youth system at Victoria Park, Boyd went on to score 60 goals in 169 appearances for the Club, including a memorable 29 during the 2004/05 campaign when Pools reached the League One Play-Off Final. His first season back at The Vic saw him score nine goals for the First Team, including a stunner in the draw with Leeds United in February. Last term he struggled for starts in Mick Wadsworth's line-up but returned to pre season training for 2011/12 in fine shape and eager to get back among the goals for his hometown club.

11 • Andy MONKHOUSE

A fans favourite at Victoria Park, left-winger Monkhouse joined the Club from Swindon Town in January 2007 after spending a couple of successful months on loan with us. Monkhouse started his career with Rotherham United and ironically scored against Pools on his league debut for the Millers. His move to Swindon in the summer of 2006 didn't work out as planned and Pools took advantage of the situation to bring him to the north east. The rangy winger put pen to paper on a new deal during the summer to commit his future to Pools.

14 • Nathan LUSCOMBE

Talented midfielder Nathan Luscombe was snapped up by Mick Wadsworth in the summer following his release from Premier League neighbours Sunderland. He initially joined the Club on trial and did enough to convince Mick Wadsworth and his management team that he could be a success in League One. Luscombe, who can operate in the centre of mid-field or wide on the left, made his debut for Sunderland in an FA Cup tie against Blackburn Rovers in January 2009.

15 • Antony SWEENEY

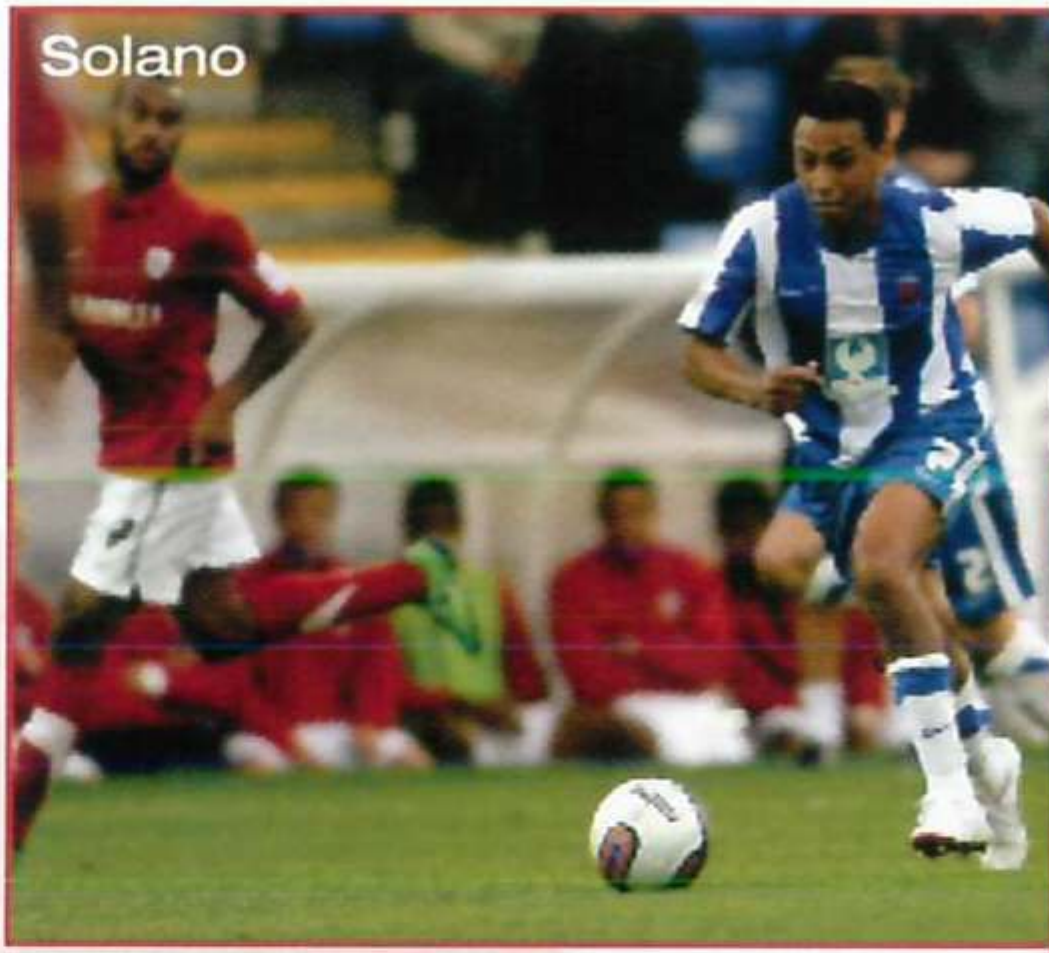

A product of the Club's youth system, central midfielder Sweeney made his debut on the opening day of the 2002/03 promotion season. Following that he had to remain patient for his next chance in the side but finally established himself under Neale Cooper towards the end of the 2003/04 campaign. He's also shown his versatility in recent seasons by slotting in on the right side of midfield or even at right-back for a spell during 2008/09 and was then restored to the middle where he played the majority of the 2009/10 and 2010/11 campaigns. He hit the ground running last term and was quickly in among the goals, ending the season with fifteen goals in all competitions. Despite interest from other clubs, Sweeney agreed a new deal during the summer to commit himself to Pools.

16 • Steve HASLAM

Experienced utility player Haslam linked up with Pools just before the start of the 2009/10 season after being released by Bury. Comfortable playing anywhere in the back four or even in midfield, Haslam is a consistent and resilient performer. A former Sheffield Wednesday player, he made his full Pools debut at MK Dons on the opening day of the 2009/10 campaign.

Solano

19 • Jordan RICHARDS

Another talented graduate from the Youth Team, Jordan Richards agreed his first professional contract with the Club during the summer of 2011. An attacking midfielder with a lovely right foot, his range of passing and ability to deliver quality crosses in to the opposition penalty area saw him catch the eye of the Pools management team. In 2010/11 his solid performances meant that he was voted Youth Team Player of the Year by the Supporters' Association.

20 • Paul MURRAY

The vastly-experienced midfielder signed with the Club during the summer of 2010 following a pre season trial initially for a month and then until the end of the season. Following his release by Shrewsbury Town at the end of last term, Murray had his appetite for the game re-invigorated while in training with Pools. Having started his career with Carlisle United, he quickly became a target for bigger clubs after some stylish displays in the centre of midfield. QPR eventually paid over £300,000 for his services and he went on to gain a handful of England B caps while at Loftus Road. A brief stint at Southampton was followed by just over 100 appearances for Oldham under Mick Wadsworth, who also took him to Portuguese side Beira Mar in 2004 and then Gretna in 2007.

21 • Andy RAFFERTY

Goalkeeper Andy Rafferty was the first signing of the 2010 summer when he made the switch from Guisborough after impressing during a trial with the Club.

22 • Jordon MELLISH

Central defender Jordon Mellish has made huge strides through the Club's Centre of Excellence and put pen to paper on his first professional contract in the summer of 2011. A dominant presence in the backline.

Poole

23 • Callum HASSAN

A powerfully-built and physically strong front man, Callum Hassan is another talented youngster to have come to the attention of Mick Wadsworth and his management team in recent times. His presence and hard work, allied with some neat footwork and an eye for goal meant it was no surprise when he was offered his first professional contract in the summer of 2011.

24 • Nolberto SOLANO

Pools made a sensational transfer swoop for Nobby Solano in May as Mick Wadsworth brought the former Peruvian international back to the north east. It's an area he knows very well from two very enjoyable spells with Wadsworth at Newcastle United where he is revered by the Magpies supporters. Most recently on the books with Hull City, Solano turned down the chance to stay at the KC Stadium to link-up with Wadsworth at Pools. He made his mark as a Boca Juniors player and caught the eye of Newcastle who took him to St James' Park in 1998 for a fee of £2.5m. He quickly became a crowd favourite during six exciting seasons when his flair and technical ability proved popular on the terraces. Aston Villa paid £1.5m for his services in January 2004 but Newcastle missed his influence so much they shelled out the same fee to bring him back to the north east just eighteen months later. With over 400 games under his belt, Solano's signing was a big deal for Pools.

26 • Paul JOHNSON

A strong and commanding central defender who has progressed quickly since joining the Club's Centre of Excellence at the age of 12. He made the step up to the Youth Team with ease and last term won a place in the heart of defence for the Reserves only to collect a serious knee injury and be forced to endure a spell on the sidelines. He made his debut for the First Team in the 2-2 draw with Bournemouth in April 2011.

Haslam

27 • Colin LARKIN

An intelligent forward who signed for Pools on the eve of the 2009/10 season after scoring during a pre season. Larkin began his career at Wolves before a six-figure sum brokered his move to Mansfield in 2002. After scoring 26 goals in just over 100 appearances he moved on to Chesterfield. Next stop was Northampton Town where he was utilised predominantly on the right wing and when he was released Pools were quickly on the phone to invite him to The Vic.

28 • Josh ROWBOTHAM

The versatile teenager impressed the Pools' hierarchy during 2010/11 for his strong performances in the Youth Team and was rewarded with a First Team debut against Tranmere Rovers in April 2011. He started that game at right-back but is equally comfortable in midfield.

29 • Peter HARTLEY

Snapped up from Sunderland during the summer of 2009, central defender Hartley had been part of the Black Cats' all-conquering Reserve side. Born in Hartlepool, he grew up watching football at The Vic but it was at Sunderland where he played his football and after joining them in 2000 he made his First Team debut for the Wearsiders as a substitute in the game at Leicester on New Year's Day 2007. Hartley also gained league experience from a loan spell with Chesterfield in 2008 when he spent three months with the Spireites and played twelve games.

30 • Darren HOLDEN

The teenage defender did enough playing for Youth and Reserves during 2010/11 to be handed his senior debut by Mick Wadsworth during the 1-1 draw with Tranmere Rovers in April 2011. Blessed with great pace and huge enthusiasm, Holden mainly operates at left back.

BOLTON WANDERERS LOOKBACK by David Batters

The clubs have met 14 times in the Football League and the results have been as follows. City's details first in each instance.

	Home	Division	Away
1971/72	D 0-0	3	W 1-0
1972/73	L 0-1	3	L 0-3
1974/75	L 1-3	2	D 1-1
1975/76	L 1-2	2	W 2-1
1984/85	L 0-3	3	L 1-2
1985/86	W 3-0	3	D 1-1
1986/87	W 2-1	3	L 1-3

Keith Houchen (2) and Dale Banton were the scorers in City's biggest win over Bolton in October 1985 and the following season Martin Butler and Tony Canham were on target in the 2-1 success. This defeat virtually condemned the Trotters to relegation to the Fourth Division. The two victories at Burnden Park saw Laurie Calloway net in the 1-0 triumph in September 1971 and Jim Hinch and Micky Cave netted in the Second Division win in April 1976.

Playing links between the two clubs include defenders Walter Bingley, Alan Hay, midfielders Ted Hathway and Phil Wilson, wingers Fred Scott and Jan Novacki and forwards Bob Mortimer and Campbell Burgess.

Managerial and coaching links are provided by Charlie Wright, Chris Evans and Ricky Sbragia.

BOLTON WANDERERS were formed in 1874 and were one of the 12 founder members of the Football League in 1888. They have won the FA Cup on four occasions 1923, 1926, 1929 and 1958 and three times have been runners up. They are about to embark on their 10th successive season back in the Premier League and last term they finished 14th.

From 1895 to 1997 they played at Burnden Park and since then their home has been at the Reebok Stadium.

16 / Our visitors ... Bolton Wanderers

Darren PRATLEY

Darren Pratley became Wanderers' first signing of the 2011/12 campaign after agreeing a deal with the club following the expiration of his contract at newly promoted Swansea City. The box-to-box midfielder made 199 appearances for the South Wales club, chipping in with a total of 31 goals.

David WHEATER

Former England Under-21 international Wheeler penned three-and-a-half year a deal at the Reebok Stadium in the 2011 January transfer window arriving from Middlesbrough for an undisclosed fee. Wheeler had been with the Teesside club since the age of 17 and scooped the FA Youth Cup in the 2003/04 season.

Tom EAVES

Tom Eaves was Wanderers' fifth recruit in the 2010 summer transfer window. The 18-year-old signed a three-year contract at the Reebok Stadium after moving from Oldham Athletic for an undisclosed fee.

Rob LAINTON

Rob Lainton joined Bolton Wanderers' academy at the U15 level and has since progressed through to the first-team level, via the U18s and Reserve sides. Born in Hyde, Lainton was considered as the third choice goalkeeper for the 2010/11 season behind Jussi Jaaskelainen and Adam Bogdan.

Marcos ALONSO

Robbie BLAKE

Robbie Blake joined Bolton Wanderers on a free transfer from Burnley in the summer of 2010. A prolific goal scorer at every level he has played, Blake shot to prominence at Bradford City in 1997 when he moved from Darlington for £300,000. Burnley paid £1m for his services in 2002. The 2004/05 season attracted a £1.25m bid from Birmingham and Blake was St Andrew's bound. He joined Leeds in the summer of 2005 for around £800,000. Blake will spend a second season at the Reebok Stadium after agreeing a one-year contract extension, one which will tie him down until the summer of 2012.

Martin PETROV

Bulgarian international Martin Petrov joined Bolton Wanderers from Manchester City on a Bosman on July 1, 2010. Petrov boasts a wealth of experience at the top level having played in the German Bundesliga with Wolfsburg, La Liga in Spain with Atletico Madrid and, most recently, in the Barclays Premier League with Manchester City. Petrov, who is renowned for possessing a venomous left-foot shot, is also a regular in the Bulgaria national side. He has earned 77 caps since making his debut in 1999.

Stuart HOLDEN

The American international, who joined in January 2010 from Houston Dynamo, has proven to be a real hit at the Reebok Stadium. Having endured a stop-start first six months, his career with Bolton really took off in his first full season as he became a focal point in central mid-field. Holden was handed the number eight shirt at the start of the 2010/11 campaign and went on to make a total 26 appearances in the Premier League.

Ivan KLASNIC

The Croatian international re-signed for Wanderers on a permanent basis in the 2010 summer transfer window after spending the previous season on loan from Nantes. Klasnic has enjoyed a career predominantly in the German top-flight with Werder Bremen, with one year in French football with Nantes. Having built his reputation at St Pauli, Klasnic joined Bremen, where he stayed for seven seasons. The Hamburg-born frontman helped them win the Bundesliga during the 2003/04 campaign.

Owen Coyle

Chung-Yong LEE

The South Korean winger has followed-up his impressive debut first season in English football with yet another sterling campaign in 2010/11. Moving to the Reebok from FC Seoul, the South Korean international signed a three-year deal for an undisclosed fee after being granted a work permit.

Sam RICKETTS

The versatility of the Welshman has proved invaluable to Wanderers' cause during his first two seasons at the club. Prior to signing a three-year deal at the Reebok in the summer of 2009, Ricketts was a mainstay in the Hull City defence during the 2008/9 campaign, helping to preserve the Tigers' Barclays Premier League status during their debut season in the top-flight. The Aylesbury-born defender made his Football League debut in 2000 with Oxford United.

Zat KNIGHT

Zat Knight moved to the Reebok in July 2009, on the same day Wanderers also swooped for Sam Ricketts. Standing at six foot six inches tall, Knight has a decade worth of Barclays Premier League experience, having gained promotion from Division One with Fulham in 2001. The former England U21 international made a total of 181 appearances for the Cottagers, before moving to Aston Villa in August 2007. The defender has also received full international recognition with England, earning caps against USA and Colombia in 2005.

Sean DAVIS

Frustratingly for both Wanderers' supporters and Davis himself, the midfielder has only been able to feature in four competitive matches since joining on a free transfer from Portsmouth in the summer of 2009.

Davis has a wealth of Premier League experience, having accumulated nearly 200 top-flight appearances with Fulham, Spurs and Pompey. He is also a former England U21 international, earning 12 caps between 2000 and 2002.

Paul ROBINSON

Paul Robinson joined Wanderers in July 2009 from West Bromwich Albion. During his first season at the Reebok, the tough-tackling full-back competed for a place on the left side of defence with J'lloyd Samuel and made a total of 25 appearances. Since making his Football League debut in 1996, Robinson went on to accumulate 490 first-class appearances with both Watford and West Bromwich Albion. In 2008 he was recognised for his reliable displays in the Baggies' successful league winning season by earning a place in the PFA Championship Team of the Year.

Mark DAVIES

Mark Davies moved to Bolton in January, 2009, after the Whites struck a deal with Wolverhampton Wanderers for his services. The highly-rated midfielder penned a four-and-a-half year deal with the club, after swapping Molineux for the Reebok Stadium for an undisclosed fee. During 2010/11, Davies was a vital cog in centre midfield, offering an extra attacking option from the centre of the pitch. Davies signed a new deal in February 2011 and is now contracted at the Reebok until July 2015.

Adam BOGDAN

During 2010/11, Wanderers' Hungarian goalkeeper has provided important back-up in the goalkeeping department and also enhanced his ever growing reputation. Following Ali-Al Habsi's summer loan move to neighbours Wigan Athletic, Bogdan was promoted to Jussi Jaaskelainen's understudy. The Hungarian Under-21 international impressed whenever he was called upon after making his senior first-team debut against Southampton in August 2010. Bogdan's progress was rewarded with a new three-year contract in March 2011, one which will keep him at the Reebok Stadium until the summer of 2014.

Gretar STEINSSON

Gretar Steinsson completed his third full season at Bolton Wanderers in 2010/11, making 26 appearances in all competitions. He joined Bolton for £3.5m in January 2008 from Dutch side AZ Alkmaar. He had started his professional career with Icelandic side Akranes before later moving to Swiss outfit Young Boys in 2004. During his time with Bolton, Steinsson has won the Community Player of the Year in both 2009 and 2010.

Matt TAYLOR

Matt Taylor joined Wanderers in January 2008 for a fee in the region of £4m from Portsmouth. He played in excess of 170 games for Pompey, having moved to the south coast in 2002 from Luton Town – the club that gave him his break in professional football.

Fabrice MUAMBA

Fabrice Muamba completed his third full season at Bolton in 2010/11, where he was a virtual ever-present by making 41 appearances in all competitions. The tall, athletic midfielder joined Wanderers from Birmingham City in the summer of 2008 in a deal worth over £5m. A product of Arsenal's famed youth Academy, the midfielder has represented England at every youth level, from Under-16 to 21. Indeed, over the last four years Muamba has been a regular in Stuart Pearce's England U21 squad and he appeared at the European Championships in Denmark this summer.

Alonso

Gary CAHILL

The 2010/11 campaign was a season to remember for Gary Cahill, whose commanding performances in the heart of Bolton's defence finally resulted in international recognition. The Sheffield-born star earned his first full cap in September 2010 against Bulgaria before making his full debut against Ghana the following March. Prior to joining Wanderers, the central defender came through the ranks at Villa Park. He also had a short spell on loan at Sheffield United in 2007.

Kevin DAVIES

No player epitomises Bolton's fighting spirit more than Kevin Davies, who has been a colossus since he joined the club on a free transfer from Southampton in 2003. And the long-serving frontman once again excelled in his second full season occupying the captain's armband. Davies chipped in with crucial goals in crucial games, including a brace in the 4-2 victory over Tottenham Hotspur and a penalty in the 3-2 FA Cup quarter-final win over Birmingham City. The former Chesterfield man started all 38 of the team's Premier League games. The 2010/11 season also proved to be a landmark campaign for the 34-year-old as he earned his first England cap in the Euro 2012 qualifier against Montenegro in October.

Jussi JAASKELAINEN

Consistency is a trait that supporters have come to expect from the club legend, and that has once again been apparent over the course of the 2010/11 season. The Finnish stopper, who moved to the club from his homeland in 1997, was rewarded for his loyalty with a testimonial in 2009. Jaaskelainen made his 500th appearance for Bolton against Birmingham in an FA Cup quarter-final tie in March 2011. The long-serving goalkeeper was a relative unknown when he joined the club from VPS Vaasa in 1997 for what was a bargain £100k fee.

Klasnic

Jaaskelainen's contract at Bolton runs until the summer of 2012.

Ricardo GARDNER

In his 13th year at the Reebok, the fans' favourite contributed in the final weeks of the season as Wanderers successfully completed their tenth season in the Barclays Premier League. The Jamaica captain battled with a knee injury for the first six months of the 2010/11 season before returning to fitness after the turn of the year.

Joe RILEY

A graduate from the Bolton Wanderers academy, Riley predominately plays on the right side of defence. During the earlier years of his career, the 19-year-old had the opportunity to play at Anfield in the FA Youth Cup.

Rhys BENNETT

The athletic defender started his career at Radcliffe Borough originally as a centre-forward. However at the age of 14 he was converted into a centre-back. Prior to suffering an injury at the end of 2010, Bennett was a regular in John Henry's reserve side. Whilst being on Wanderers books, the youngster has also spent time progressing his academic skills by studying for his A-Level qualifications. Was loaned out to Scottish First Division club Falkirk at the start of the 2011/12 campaign.

Tom ECKERSLEY

A former England youth international, Eckersley is another player to have made the grade at reserve team level having progressed through the Bolton Wanderers academy. The aspiring central defender lists Roy Keane and John Terry as his role models.

Mark CONNOLLY

The Republic of Ireland defender was recruited from Wolverhampton Wanderers on transfer deadline day in 2009. He spent the second-half of the 2009/10 season on loan at St Johnstone. Connolly made his Republic of Ireland Under-21 debut against Cyprus in February 2011.

Adam BLAKEMAN

A versatile player with an eye for goal, Blakeman often occupies the left-back role for the reserve side but is equally adept playing in the centre or on the left side of midfield. Regularly on the score-sheet for the reserves, Blakeman is often charged with duties from set-pieces and penalties and occupies a sweet left foot.

Tope OBADEYI

Birmingham-born Obadeyi joined Wanderers in 2006 following a successful youth career with Coventry City and has progressed enough to earn loan spells at Football League outfits Swindon Town, Rochdale and most recently Shrewsbury Town. Capped at numerous youth levels for England.

Josh VELA

Vela has emerged as a promising prospect at Wanderers, so much so that he signed professional terms with the club in March 2011. Although regularly associated as a centre-midfielder, he can also play on either flank or just behind the strikers.

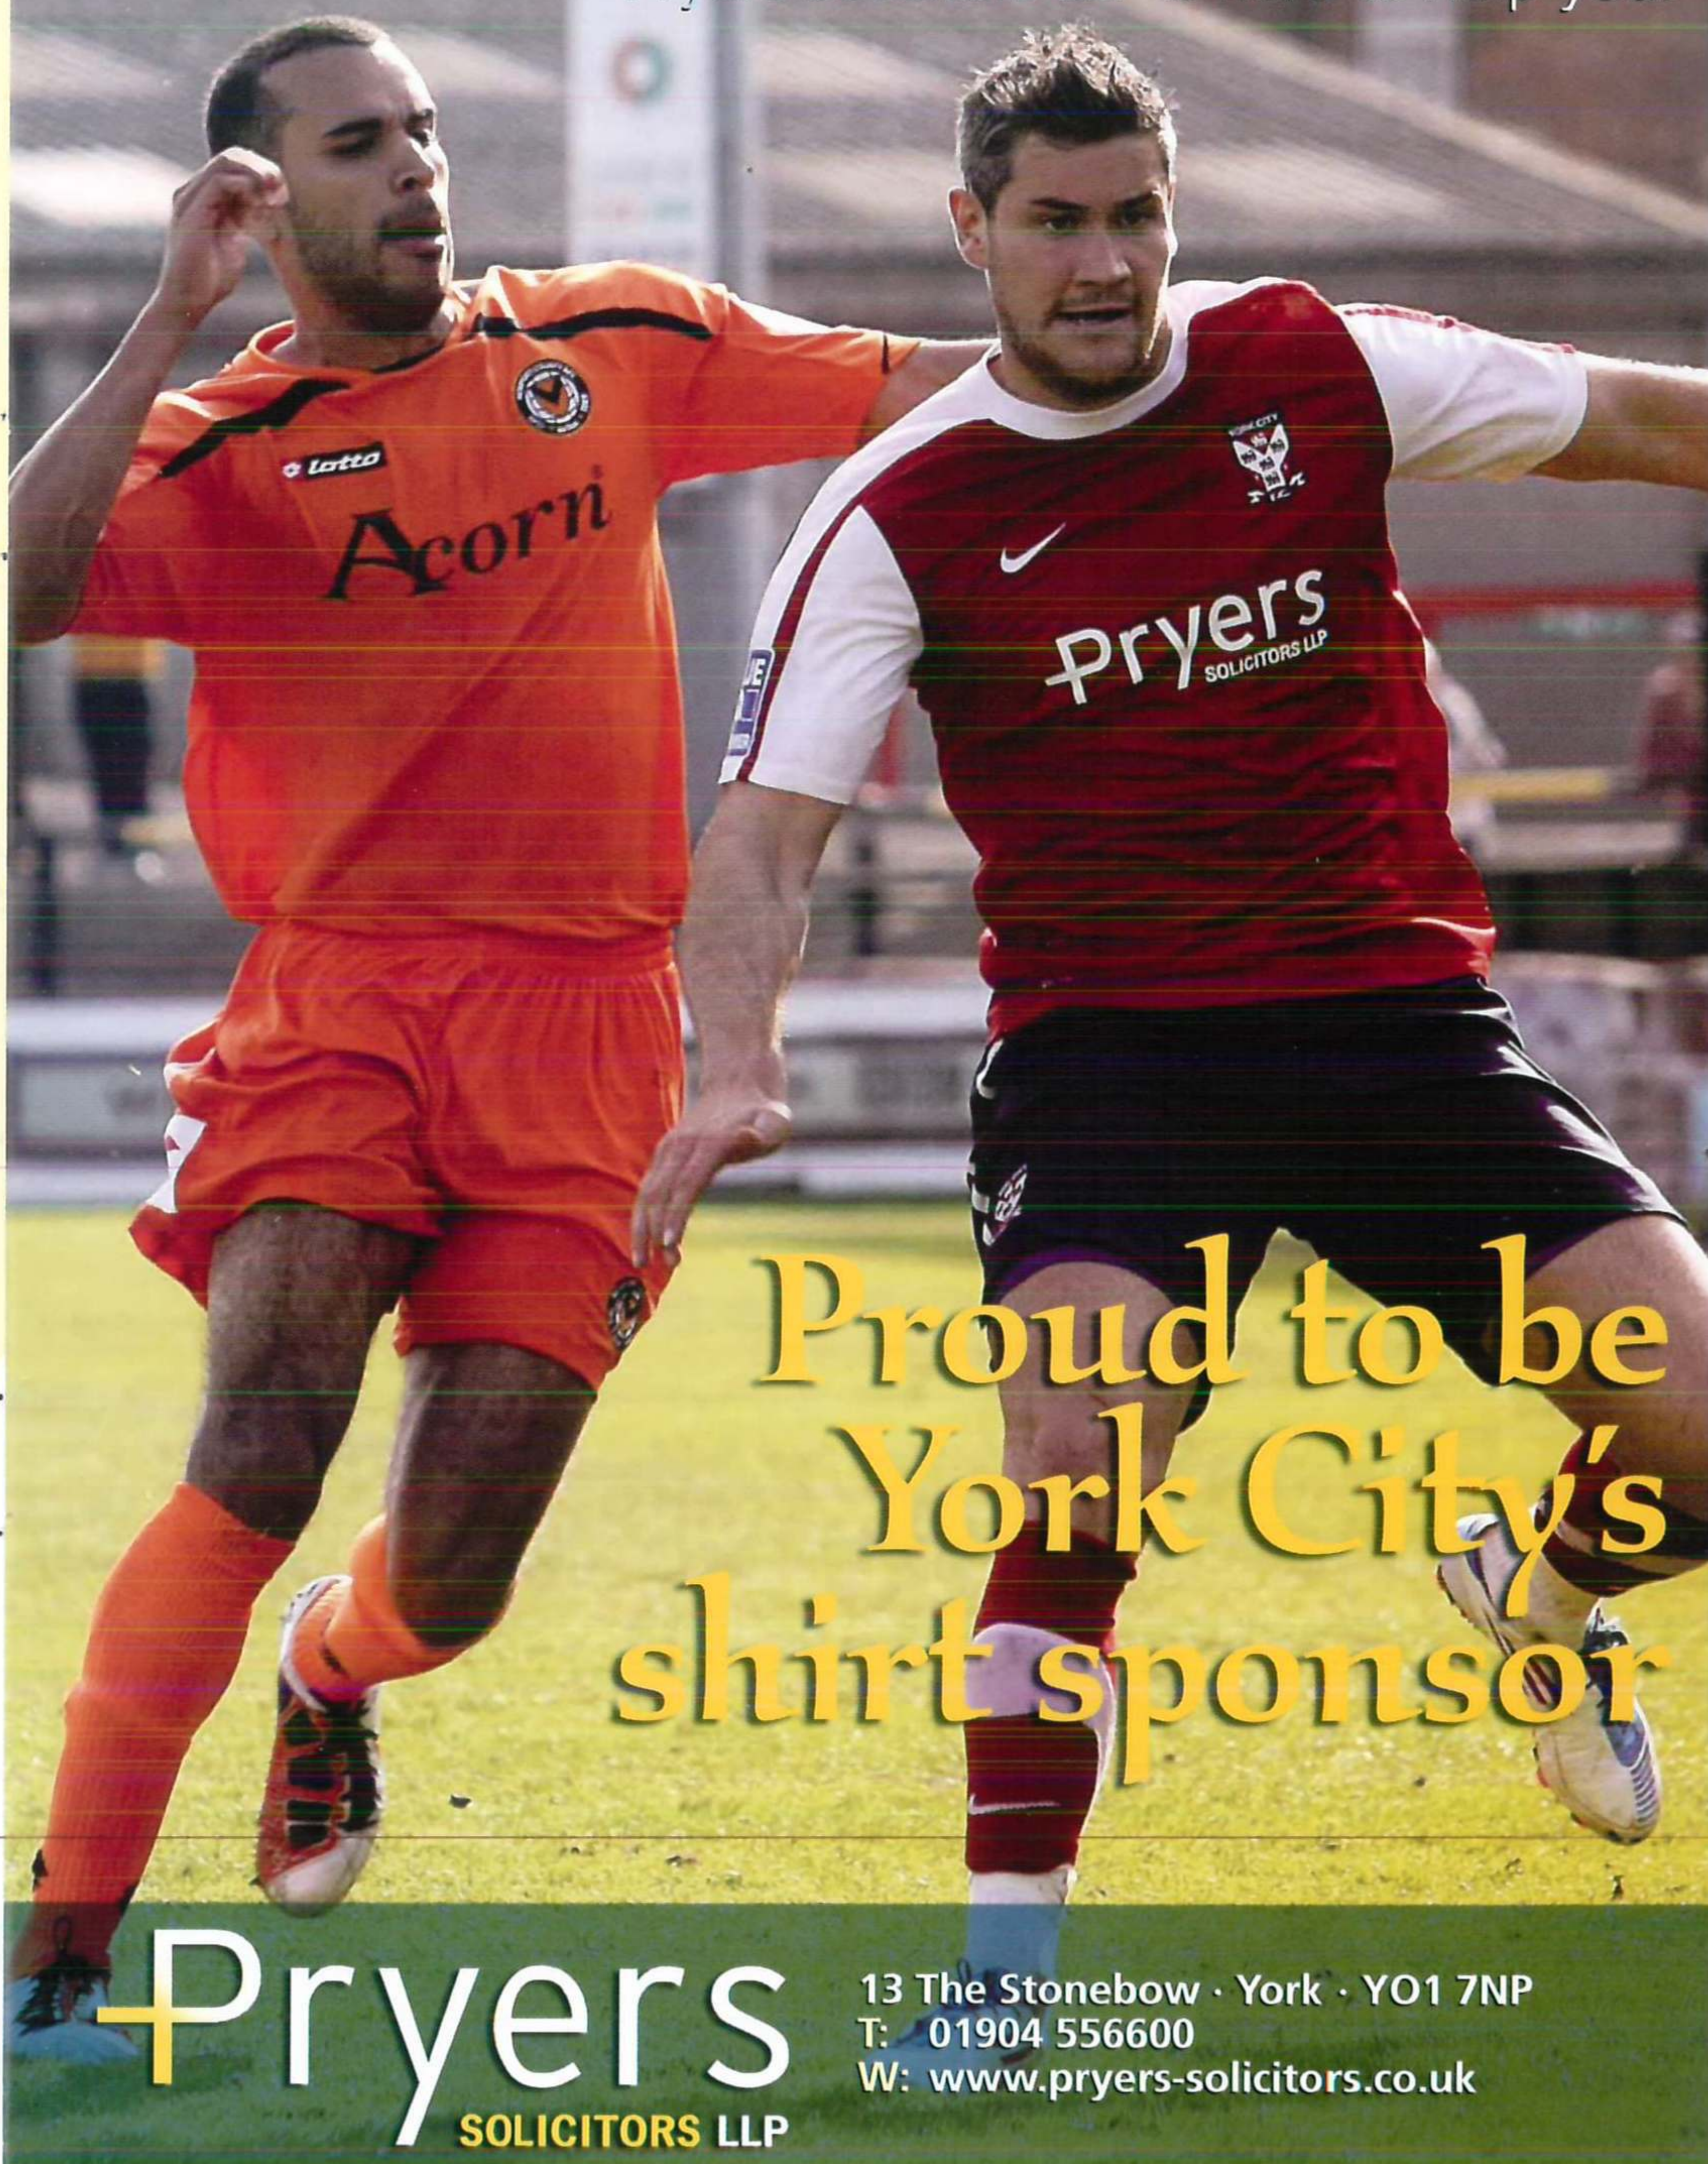

Michael O'HALLORAN

An agile frontman, O'Halloran signed for Wanderers from Kilmarnock as a youngster and scored plenty of goals for the Under-18 side. The Scotsman continued this goalscoring form with the reserve side during the 2010/11 season, so much so that he progressed to earn a place on the bench for the first team in their FA Cup third round tie against City.

Tom EAVES

Signed for the club in the summer of 2010 having impressed in a pre-season friendly playing for Oldham Athletic where he came off the bench in the first-half to net a hat-trick against Wanderers. A strong and powerful centre-forward, Eaves has rapidly adjusted to life at his new club finding the net on countless occasions throughout the duration of the 2010/11 season for the reserves.
